Hunter Mill District
Supervisor Cathy Hudgins

Dear Hunter Mill Friends,

In the course of my role as supervisor, I face many issues, consider lots of alternatives, and make many decisions. The Board of Supervisors (BOS) as a collective body functions in the same manner, issues - alternatives - decisions - wise, as we vote on matters and set governing policy. Furthermore, all votes are not unanimous, often they are. Which is as it should be.

Occasionally, I feel it useful to publically share my thoughts and to offer further insight into my decision – a particular case in point, the John Geer investigation.

Regarding establishment of the Ad Hoc Police Practices Review Commission, my vote is part of the public record. The following is my opinion of this issue.

While I support establishing a citizen police practice review commission, I do object to the manner in which the Board of Supervisor is establishing the commission.

I have urged that the Board discuss this matter in open session to review the current policy, to set benchmarks on what we wish to accomplish and to create a process of citizen engagement.

True transparency uses the established BOS process and committee structure. The original Ad Hoc Police Practices Review Commission Board Matter, presented by the Chairman, should have gone to the Board of Supervisors Public Safety Committee for discussion. This level of engagement would help shape the issue in a more comprehensive way and allow the community to at least hear and respond to our discussion.

I support a Citizen Review Committee, but today, our citizens are expressing a lack of confidence in matters of police accountability on lethal force. Starting a process that does not bring the citizens in at the beginning is not a good response to citizen concern.

As always, I endorse structured citizen involvement to hear and respond to Board proposals. Community input is a valuable resource and an excellent mirror to reflex transparency.

It is to that transparency that I am fully committed. It is my hope that the proposed process has meaningful citizen involvement and yields a proposal for real transparency in the review of Fairfax County Police use of lethal force .

First Wednesday with Supervisor Hudgins

On Wednesday, April 1, Supervisor Hudgins will be holding a First Wednesday session, from 4 to 6 p.m. at the Reston Regional Library, 11925 Bowman Towne Drive. Residents are invited to come talk with the Supervisor one-on-one. Stop in to share your questions or concerns. No appointment necessary.

FY2016 Budget Information

At the February 17th Board of Supervisors meeting, County Executive Ed Long unveiled his proposed FY2016 budget plan. The proposed plan maintains the current real estate tax rate of $1.09, and increases the transfer to Fairfax County Public Schools by 3.43% over FY2015.

Also included in the plan are:

- A net decrease of 45 county government staff positions,
- Commitment to increase financial reserves to protect the County's Triple A bond rating,
- Continued support of critical human services, public safety, and economic programs and initiatives,
- Compensation increase for County employees based on a partial Market Rate Adjustment as well as performance and longevity increases.

At the March 3rd Board of Supervisors meeting, the Board approved an advertised budget real estate tax rate of $1.09. This action establishes the upper limit for the tax rate which will be finalized when the budget is formally adopted.

Your input is an important consideration as the Board deliberates on this year's budget issues. There are several ways for you to communicate with the Supervisors. Public hearings are scheduled for April 7th, 8th, and 9th. Speakers are asked to sign up prior to the hearings. Or, you can email your comments directly to Supervisor Hudgins or the entire Board. Links to these options in the boxes above.

In the coming weeks, the Hunter Mill Citizens Advisory Budget Committee will prepare their recommendations to help Supervisor Hudgins through the budget decisions. This committee of Hunter Mill District residents is studying the proposed budget and will share their insights and suggestions. Their findings will be posted on the Hunter Mill District website when completed.

New Leadership at the Reston Police Station

Along with a new building, the Reston District Police Station also welcomes new commanders. The new station is headed by Captain Ron Manzo (on the right). Joining Captain Manzo and serving as his second in command is Lieutenant Lance Schaible (on the left).

Both officers invite you to become more involved with the Fairfax County Police through the Reston Citizens Advisory Committee (CAC). CAC's offer residents a chance to dialogue with member of the local police districts and bring neighborhood issues to their attention. The Reston CAC meets on the 3rd Thursday of the month at 7:30 p.m., at the new Reston Police Station.

FCPA Sets Hearing on Conveyance of Reston Towne Green Property

The Fairfax County Park Authority will hold a public hearing on Wednesday, April 8, 2015 at 7:30 p.m. to receive public comment on the conveyance of property in the Hunter Mill District. The property consists of five acres and is identified on the Fairfax County Real Property Identification Map as Tax Map No. 17-1 ((1)) Parcel 14D, commonly referred to as the "Reston Towne Green property". The property is located on Fountain Drive in Reston, VA and is located within the same parcel as the North County Government Center in the Reston Town Center North District. The hearing will be held at the Herrity Building located at 12055 Government Center Parkway in Fairfax, VA in Rooms 106 and 107.

Conveyance of the property is being considered in response to the Reston Transit Station Area Comprehensive Plan Amendment adopted by the Board of Supervisors on February 11, 2014 which encourages a land use pattern that "incorporates significant new residential development and new non-residential uses to complement the existing and planned public uses and the concentration of employment in the Reston Town Center and a significant new open space to serve as a defining element in the organization of a new, more urban pattern of blocks."

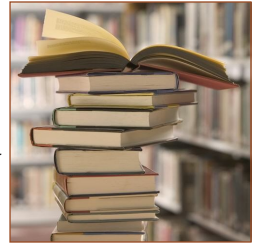

The Park Authority is seeking public comment regarding the proposed conveyance of the Reston Towne Green property to the Board of Supervisors in consideration for a potential two-point-six acre urban Central Green, commitment to provide approximately 90,000 square feet of density within one of the new urban blocks, and other considerations that may be advantageous to the Park Authority mission. It is envisioned that the proposed density would be used for the development of an indoor recreation facility or other recreational use to be operated by the Park Authority. Additional information about the Reston Transit Station Area, including Reston Towne Center North, may be found online at <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/dpz/comprehensiveplan/area3/upperpotomac.pdf#page=28>. The text of the proposed Contract of Sale between the Park Authority and the Board of Supervisors may be viewed at: <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/plandev/downloads/Sale-Contract-14D.pdf>. Additionally, paper copies of the Contract of Sale are available in the Herrity Building, 12055 Government Center Parkway, Suite 927, Fairfax, VA.

Park Policy 210, Disposal of Land or Facilities, requires a public hearing be held prior to the Park Authority's decision to dispose of land or facilities. If you wish to speak at the hearing, you may sign up in advance by calling the Public Information Office at 703-324-8662 or via email at parkmail@fairfaxcounty.gov. You may also sign up at the hearing. Organizations may have one official speaker for five minutes; individuals may testify for three minutes.

Written and e-mail comments will be taken now until April 7, 2015. Written comments may be sent to David R. Bowden, Director of Planning & Development Division, Fairfax County Park Authority, 12055 Government Center Parkway, Suite 406, Fairfax, Virginia 22035. Email comments should be sent to: parkmail@fairfaxcounty.gov. The Park Board will consider public testimony from the hearing on April 8, 2015 and vote on the matter at their regular Board meeting scheduled for that same night.

For more information contact the Public Information Office at 703-324-8662.

New Library Director Survey

By next spring, Fairfax County Public Library will have a new library director. You are invited to help identify the qualities needed to help find the best person to lead our library system. The library director has four main areas of responsibility: to the community, to the staff, to the County Board of Supervisors, and to the Library Board of Trustees.

The director works with various constituents, donors, governing boards, and more. The public library provides a rich array of services, programs, information, recreational, and educational resources that are available in twenty-three branches and online. The director is the head of a 600+ employee organization; ensures that the monies allocated by the County Board of Supervisors are wisely spent; that county policies and priorities are adhered to; and that the policies and wishes of the Library Board of Trustees are implemented.

An online survey is available to gather your comments at <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/library/directorsearch.htm>. Please take a few moments to add your ideas to help the Library Board of Trustees in their search.

Reston Regional Library Welcomes New Manager

By Hunter Mill Student Intern Megan Sharifi

In December of 2014, Reston Regional Library got a new Branch Manager, Daria Parnes. Daria is not someone who is new to libraries. In fact, she has worked in libraries almost her entire life. While she studied at Syracuse University, she was a librarian, and later got her master's degree in library science from Simmons College. She served at other libraries in the Fairfax County library system, including Chantilly Regional Library, where she was branch manager for six years.

Being the branch manager for the library comes with a tremendous amount of responsibilities. The branch manager is in charge of the departments and facilities: supervising and evaluating staff members, attending a number of professional meetings, and integrating the library with the surrounding community, just to name a few. She says that working with people and developing ideas to make the library become an integral part of the community is where her main focus lies.

On a personal level, she is married, has two children and four cats, speaks French and Russian and would like to travel to Scotland one day. Daria enjoys watching science fiction or comedy T.V. shows, but her favorite show is Downton Abbey. Her favorite book is Dandelion Wine by Ray Bradbury.

Now that you know Daria's background, please drop by the library and introduce yourself.

Transportation

Drive to Donate* on Saturday, March 21: Tolls Support Fairfax Fire and Rescue

On Saturday, March 21, all tolls collected on the I-495 and I-95 Express Lanes will be donated to local county fire and rescue departments (Fairfax, Prince William and Stafford). To participate, all you need to do is travel on the 495 or 95 Express Lanes with your E-Z Pass or E-Z Pass Flex.

How to Ride the Bus: Transit Instruction for 55+ on Monday, March 16th

A new, instructive program for senior residents offers unique training on how to use regional transit systems around the North County corridor. Travelers-in-training will learn how to identify bus stops, read bus schedules and route maps, how to pay the fare and other bus skills. Also included is a visit to the Silver Line station to learn how to determine and pay fares, purchase and load SmartTrip cards, and a trip on the trains. Instruction is on the Mobile Accessible Travel Training bus (MATT). Participants will meet in the Reston Community Center Hunters Woods lobby at 1 p.m. on March 16th. For information or to sign up, contact Karen Brutsche at 703-476-4500, or at www.restoncommunitycenter.com.

Tysons Restriping Community Meeting: March 16th

Fairfax County Department of Transportation (FCDOT) works with the Virginia Department of Transportation (VDOT) to make changes to the pavement markings during the yearly repaving cycle. These changes can be used to make new bicycle lanes, or roadway diets. FCDOT will be hosting a community meeting to discuss a series of roadway changes in the Tysons area. These changes will help facilitate alternative transportation modes in the Tysons area. The meeting is scheduled for Monday, March 16 at Westbriar Elementary School, 1741 Pine Valley Drive, Vienna, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. A list of the improvements is available at <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/fcdot/bike/>.

Interstate 66 Bicycle Facilities Meeting: March 18th

The Fairfax Advocates for Better Bicycling (FABB) will be meeting Wednesday, March 18 from 7:30 - 9 p.m. at the Braddock Hall District Office's meeting room located adjacent to Kings Park Library, at 9002 Burke Lake Road, Burke, VA 22015. FABB is your local bicycle transportation advocacy group and partners closely with the County in bringing infrastructure to accommodate bicycles as a transportation alternative. VDOT will be making a presentation on the I-66 project, concerning bike facilities to be included on the rebuilt bridges and status of planning for the parallel trail. Interested citizens are invited to attend this meeting. For more info on the I66 project please visit www.transform66.org.

Pothole Season in Full Bloom! Help Out by Reporting

Virginia Department of Transportation (VDOT) is responsible for the upkeep on state-maintained roads. You can help them out by reporting potholes to their online work request website at <http://www.virginiadot.org/travel/citizen.asp>.

Washington Metropolitan Area Transportation Authority (WMATA) News:

Accessibility Advisory Committee Openings

Are you a senior (65+) or have a disability, regularly ride Metrobus, Metrorail and/or MetroAccess, and live in Fairfax County? Washington Metropolitan Area Transportation Authority (WMATA) is currently soliciting applications from customers with disabilities who are interested in filling vacancies on its Accessibility Advisory Committee. Participants help in making WMATA transportation options better for customers with disabilities and senior citizens. The Accessibility Advisory Committee (AAC) advises WMATA on ways to improve Metrobus, Metrorail, and MetroAccess. Interested individuals can fill out an application at <http://wmata.com/accessibility/edApplication/index.cfm>. The deadline to apply for a position is March 30 at 5:00PM. If you have additional questions, please contact 202-962-6060.

Metro's Sexual Harassment Campaign

Metro's new anti-sexual harassment public service campaign is now on display across the system. The campaign is designed to raise awareness that harassment of fellow riders is not tolerated on Metro. Any customer who is harassed, threatened or assaulted is urged to report it to Transit Police immediately.

Emerald Ash Borer: Management, Cost and Implications for Residents

Emerald Ash Borer (EAB) insects are killing trees throughout Fairfax County. Urban Forest Management staff provides expertise and advice to homeowner and civic associations, environmental groups, garden clubs and other community organizations to help residents manage EBA.

County urban foresters may visit community groups to talk about:

- How to identify an ash tree
- How to identify an EBA-infested tree
- How to hire an arborists or tree removal company
- EBA control options.

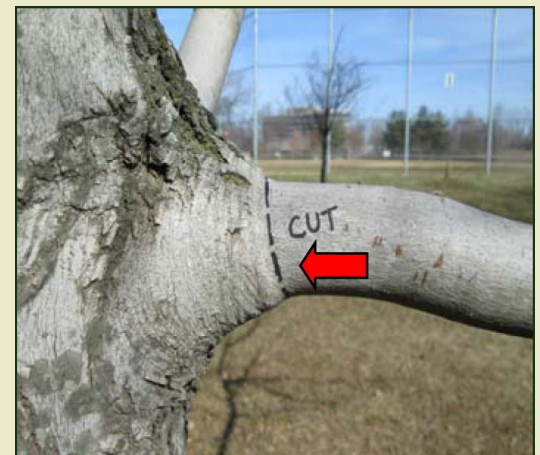

For more information on visits or materials, contact Fairfax County Urban Forest Management Division at PESTmail@fairfaxcounty.gov, or call 703-324-5304.

Spring Tree Care Tips

Spring is an excellent time to give your trees a tune-up and prepare them for their flush of new growth. Here are six tips for your trees:

1. Remove all guy wires and stakes from your trees that were planted last year or earlier. Any material that is wrapped around the trunk should be removed before the growth period starts to prevent girdling the tree and causing damage to the trunk.
2. Remove mulch from around the trunk of your tree and inspect the trunk for rodent damage. During the winter, mice may nest in deep piles of mulch and feed on the thin bark at the base of a tree. Mulch should be kept at least three inches away from the base of your tree.
3. Prune any damaged branches. A torn branch wound will not close quickly. This will leave an open wound on the tree that can attract insects. A clean cut at the branch collar will close properly.
4. Inspect your tree carefully for any over-wintering insect egg masses. This will be easier to do without leaves on the tree. Some insects are beneficial to trees so don't be in a hurry to remove the eggs until you identify the insect.
5. Make your mulch ring wider to help conserve moisture and reduce weeds. Removing turf from around your tree eliminates competition for moisture and nutrients.
6. Do a soil test to see what nutrients are in short supply for your tree. A test kit can be obtained from the Virginia Cooperative Extension (703-324-5369). This test will help you to fertilize your tree with the correct nutrients that it needs.

Tree Tip #3: The branch collar is where the branch meets the trunk of the tree. When necessary, cutting off a branch at the branch collar may allow the cut to close properly.

Come Put the Animals to Bed

Add a bit of fun to the bedtime clamor by putting the animals to bed at Frying Pan Farm Park. When evening shadows spread over Kidwell Farm, it's time for the many farm animals to go to sleep. Bring your flashlight or lantern for this twilight tour and learn how the animals of the farm settle down for the night. Join the adventure on March 12, 17, or 19 from 7 to 8 p.m. Cost is $8 per person. Register online or call 703-222-4664.

Frying Pan Farm Park is located at 2739 West Ox Road in Herndon.
